Description

.We invite you to visit this illuminated apartment. Upon entering, you will be greeted by the living room and dining room, bathed in natural light that flows through two windows overlooking the parking lot. To your left, the kitchen unfolds, followed by the laundry area, creating a practical and functional space for everyday life. The first room is located on the left, just after the kitchen. The second room is located in front of the first, creating a harmonious and accessible design; These rooms are complemented by a bathroom with an electric shower. The last room, which is called the main room, is located at the back of the apartment. This master bedroom has a large walking closet and an exclusive bathroom with an electric shower, providing comfort and privacy.

The complex has a goal and surveillance which provides greater security to its residents; and a playground for children to enjoy.

The parking lot is communal and is raffled off every six months for residents to be able to use it.
