Description

This apartment in Calasanz sounds very complete and well located. With three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a balcony, a library, a study, a utility room and a parking lot with a remote-controlled garage, it seems to have everything you need for a comfortable life. In addition, the proximity to the commercial area and various services such as pharmacies, bakeries, supermarkets and chain stores, as well as being in front of a grocery store, are additional advantages. Are you interested in buying an apartment in that area? Do you need more information about the location or the purchasing process?
