Description

In the residential neighborhood El Darién is the Villa del Río urbanization, the most traditional in the municipality of Apartadó and highly desired for rent by residents since it has a private concierge, 24-hour security, community pool, children's games and parking for visitors. In addition, the sector where the property is located is on the outskirts of the municipality, next to green areas, neighboring multiple residential units and with a very good transportation system. Ideal for family living.
