Description

This sixty-eight square meter office is located in the Salitre Office Business Tower, a modern and environmentally friendly construction, located in a strategic area for developing business. It has two meeting rooms, a large area to organize the work stations of your collaborators, a private bathroom, kitchenette and private covered parking. In the common areas of the building there is a reception with a waiting room, two auditoriums for holding conferences, bathrooms and two elevators, as well as a parking service for visitors. Its location two blocks from the intersection of Avenida La Esperanza and Carrera Fifty, allows quick travel to any point in the city whether by private or public transportation, as it is also worth noting that apart from the transportation routes of the system SITP is three blocks from the Trasmilenio de Quinta Paredes station. The value includes administration.
