Description

Apartment Rental Located on the 12th floor of an exclusive residential unit in El Tesoro Poblado, this 120m² apartment combines sophistication and functionality in its contemporary design. It has two large main rooms, the main one with its bathroom and dressing room, and a social bathroom guaranteeing privacy and comfort for its residents. In addition, it has an additional space for the service room, which includes its own independent bathroom, offering versatility to be used as accommodation for domestic staff.

The heart of the home is a spacious living room, from which you can access a balcony that extends the length of the apartment. This balcony not only provides panoramic views of the cityscape, but also an ideal space to relax and enjoy the fresh air and views throughout the day.

The kitchen, integrated into the social area, is designed to combine functionality and style, equipped with furniture that maximizes storage space.

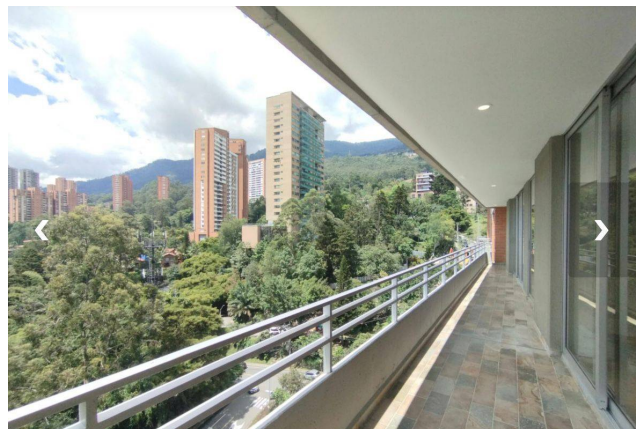

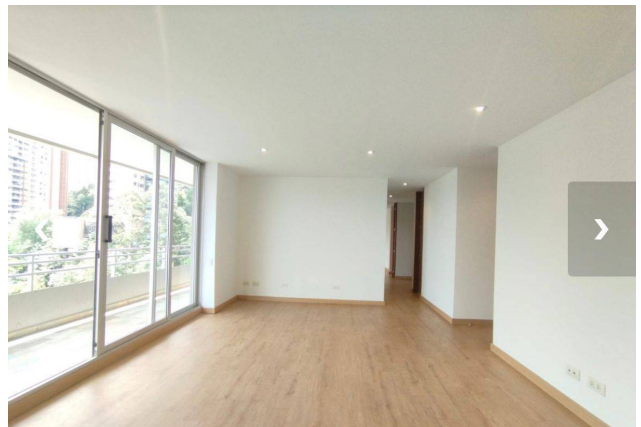

As part of the residential unit, residents have access to a number of luxury amenities including a swimming pool to enjoy the sun and relax, as well as a fully equipped gym allowing you to stay in shape without having to leave the premises.

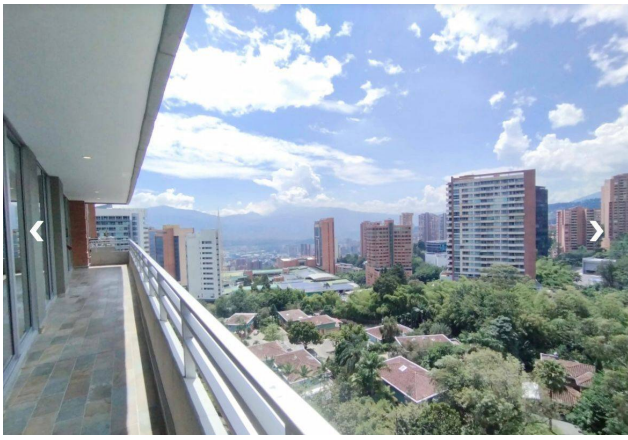

In short, this apartment not only offers a contemporary and elegant lifestyle in one of the most exclusive areas of the city, but also practical amenities such as additional service space, panoramic balcony and access to high-quality amenities. It is the perfect home for those who value comfort, privacy and stunning views that complement modern urban living.
